Motion to Strike and Resubmit

1. Comes now jason caissie to motion the court to allow jason to strike the first filing of a claim. jason had two working files on the computer and mistakenly printed the file with unfinished work product which was submitted to the court. Jason caissie requests the court to strike the unfinished work product that was filed and be allowed to submit the correct filing that he intended to enter. This mistake was realized after leaving the Jackson area and the court was closed for the day. This request is within the deadline for filing. This complies with FRCP 15 and Local Rule 15.
2. Jason caissie is not guilty of undue delay, bad faith, dilatory motive, undue surprise or repeated failure to cure deficiencies. Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182.
3. This request will not cause undue delay.
4. The interest of justice would be served by granting the motion. Hillburn v. Maher, 795 F.2d252, 264
5. The adverse parties will not suffer undue prejudice by granting this motion. Foman, 371 U.S., at 182.
6. Attached as Exhibit A is jason caissie's intended and correct claim.
7. For these reasons, jason caissie asks the court to grant this motion and permit the strike of first filing and permit the entry of this Exhibit A as the correct claim for jason caissie.

Respectfully submitted
